The Chicago Flower & Garden Show being held March 10-18, 2012, is an experience for the senses, invoking memories of spring after a typically long and cold Chicago winter. The more than 50,000 guests of the Flower & Garden Show are treated to the sights, scents and sounds of feature gardens with blooming perennials, annuals and trees while water features rustle throughout the Festival Halls of Chicago's acclaimed Navy Pier.

Local landscape contractors and designers create feature gardens and displays that inspire and demonstrate to attendees the possibilities for their own gardens, yards and balconies. Seminars and horticultural experts are on hand to educate visitors of all ages. And the entire show is built to motivate people to create or improve their own personal green spaces as well as greening the environment we all share.
